FRAUD NOTICE (Please read carefully)

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud or deceive any insurance company submits an insurance application or statement of claim containing any false, incomplete or misleading information may be subject to civil or criminal penalties, depending upon state law.

In Florida, any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or an application containing any false, incomplete or misleading information is guilty of a felony of the third degree.

In Kentucky, any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime. Any application for insurance in writing by the applicant shall be altered solely by the applicant or by his written consent; except that insertions may be made by the insurer for administrative purposes only in such manner as to indicate clearly that such insertions are not to be ascribed to the applicant.

In Maryland, any person who knowingly or willfully presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or who knowingly or willfully presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

In Oregon, any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud or deceive any insurance company submits an insurance application or statement of claim containing any false, incomplete or misleading information may be subject to civil or criminal penalties if intentional and material to the risk.

In Washington, it is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines, and denial of insurance benefits.

We certify that the above information is correct and that the claims have been paid in accordance with the plan.

APPLICANT UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT

The provider excess loss insurance requested and requested effective date must be approved by Highmark Casualty Insurance Company as under our current rules and practices. All options and special requests are subject to Home Office approval. No insurance agent or broker has authority to guarantee acceptability of requested insurance coverage.

Our approval is subject to receipt of the Required Data outlined on page 2 of this application and the first month's premium, and any other information requested in connection with this Application. Failure to do so will result in approval being denied or delayed until a later date.

Receipt of a premium and its deposit in connection with the Application shall not constitute an acceptance of liability. In the event that Highmark Casualty Insurance Company, or our authorized agent, disapproves this Application, its sole obligation shall be to refund such sum to the Applicant.

Coverage will not be in effect until notified in writing by the Home Office. Do not cancel prior coverage until so notified.

Final premium rates will be determined on the basis of receipt of the Required Data provided on page 2 of this Application. Should subsequent information become known which, if known as of the date specified by Highmark Casualty Insurance Company, or our authorized agent, would have affected the rates, deductibles, terms or conditions for coverage, we will have the right to revise the rates, deductibles, terms or conditions, by providing written notice to the Applicant. The Policy, if issued, may be void, whether before or after a claim or loss, due to a misrepresentation stated in the Policy or an endorsement or rider attached thereto, or in this application that is intended to deceive or that materially affects the risk.

A true and accurate copy of the Capitation Agreement(s) in force on the effective date of this Policy, and all other Required Data outlined on page 2 of the Application must be provided to Us for the Application and Policy to be fully executed and losses reimbursable. Changes to those documents must be reported as required by the Policy. Changes to the Capitation Agreement(s) may require changes to the rating basis indicated in the Schedule of Insurance.

If the description of the terms of the capitation agreement differ from what was initially utilized to underwrite the risk, the premium rates and aggregate retention factors may be subject to re-rating, retro-active to the requested effective date.

The provider excess loss insurance which is the subject of this Application is a reimbursement contract, and the Applicant must first pay claims and make funds available to pay claims as they become payable before submitting them for reimbursement. Oral statements not expressly incorporated herein are not part of this Application.

Issuance of the Policy is in reliance of the Required Data outlined on page 2, submitted to us, and payment of the first month's premium; subsequent premiums are due no later than the first day of each calendar month during the Plan Year.
